イギリス紳士Mr.ディー氏の"にっぽん☆ワンダーランド"

Graduation is always a special time for students in the UK. There's a class photo with students wearing a cape and a funny looking hat, only to throw the hat into the air. After this perhaps a family photo while dressed up. Once graduation day has finished you can see the students standing around talking to one another saying "Do jobs happen now? Is this when we get a job?". There's so much doubt and confusion transitioning from studies to the real world Most UK students quickly find a job a year after graduation.

わびさび

物静かで、ひっそりと寂しい様子を美とする『侘び(わび)』。古びて趣(おもむき)がある様を、儂(はかな)く上品とする『寂び(さび)』。

「侘び寂び」は日本文化の美意識のひとつです。

"Wabi" is the way of looking at something in it's beauty or space that is quiet and lonely in appearance,

"Sabi" is the way of looking at something that is elegant, mature and has many sights of transience.

These are one of many aesthetics in Japanese art culture.

上記は我々のオリジナル"わびさび"です。皆様なりの英語では非英訳にチャレンジしてみてください(^_^) 今回の和訳・英訳に關しましては多くの諸説がある為、上記のみが答えではありません。予めご了承ください。わびさびの意味上、千差万別・十人十色の表現があります。簡単に伝えられない深い、深い言葉のようです。。。

A small percentage of students go abroad to use their new found diploma for travelling and working in a new exciting country.

It's a time for change, chance and opportunity and it's one not to be taken lightly. I feel for all those Japanese students who are graduating, as they must now take the next big scary step towards a working life.

Good luck to you all!

UK GRAD STYLE !!

How do you say this in English?

「ドレスシャツ」

←正解は...
A dress shirt
「シャツ」も通用せず。
ちなみに、「カクタン」は日本の某会社による商標名。
White Shirtが元々だそうです。
「シャツ」は日本人になら
伝わる言葉です。
